Gorton's Minstrels will appear at Barre opera house Aug. 18, with an entirely new, novel and up-to-date attraction. The wardrobe, stage, and scenic effects are elaborate and expensive, and the company comprises only the best and most capable performers. A street parade of more than usual attractiveness, will be given at noon.

The Durant (Ind. Ter.) Times says of Mrs. Callie H. Howe: "She is a handsome attractive woman, splendidly educated, with natural intelligence written in every feature, and is a brilliant, earnest, enthusiastic lecturer. You have heard a grand old anthem rise, swell, fill the earth and heavens, then softly, sweetly die away, leaving you in a higher mental attitude, firmer of purpose, nobler, purer; such was the influence of this gifted speaker over her audiences, especially those women who had before heard and faintly comprehended the cry of suffering humanity for woman's work. She departed from the beaten track of temperance lecturers, gave us new and better thoughts, broadened our Christian view till the whole seething mass of humanity claimed our sympathy, and made us pity cherubim and reverend Christianity." Remember the date, Aug. 17, Methodist church at 8 o'clock.

Superb in stage settings, scenic effect and sumptuous costumes, the new "First Part" setting of the performance given by Gorton's Minstrels this season is said to surpass anything ever presented in minstrelsy. The scene represents the broad lawn of the "Ponce de Leon Hotel," the famous winter resort of Florida, on every side sparkling fountains and bright lured flowers adorn the landscape. In the background appear the imposing outlines of this famous hostelry, magnificent in structure and gorgeous in color. Numerous brilliant electric lights add to the splendor and beauty of this tropical scene. The costuming of the company is elaborate, and calls for special attention. The vocalists are attired in the elegant satin court costumes of the time of Louis XIV. The end-men are resplendent in evening dress suits of corse satin, the interlocutor appears in a costume of pure white satin, and the orchestra in steel gray satin. The whole picture forms a brilliant and picturesque ensemble, original in conception and pleasing in every detail. The company will appear at Barre opera house, Aug. 18.

A Touching Story
is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Price 25c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

THE PERFECT WAY.

Scores of Barre Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

Are endorsed by Barre people.

Geo. W. Brown, (carpenter of 23 Barre Street), says: "When living at 22 Pearl Street in the winter of 1897, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at E. A. Drown's drug store and after giving them a thorough trial I made the following statement through the Barre newspapers: 'Doan's Kidney Pills were worth their weight in gold to me.' That is my honest opinion. I add my reasons for thinking so. A few years ago I strained my back. It bothered me some at the time, but I paid little attention to it, thinking it would leave off of its own accord. It did not. It developed quite a serious kidney trouble. I tried various remedies but found nothing brought permanent benefit. In some manner my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I tried them. They did me a wonderful amount of good, and stopped a weakness of the kidneys and renal organs which was very annoying at night. Now today, in the May, 1902, I am pleased to continue my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I know of friends who have been benefited by their use. I have never relapsed into the condition that existed when Doan's Kidney Pills first came to my notice."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Ethan Allen.

Vermonters are looking forward to an interesting event Wednesday, when a tower on Indian Rock, overlooking Lake Champlain, will be dedicated as a monument to Vermont's hero in the Revolution—Ethan Allen. The home of the intrepid Green Mountain leader was near this spot, and it commands a view of the lake over which Champlain, with his voyagers, nearly three hundred years ago, made his historic voyage of exploration. Ethan Allen well deserves a monument at the hands of the Vermonters. Efforts have been made to show that he was a rough, uncouth character, but the latest researches of historical students go to show that while he was not a learned man in so far as the profession of letters was concerned, he was quite capable of expressing himself in good, vigorous English, and that he was animated at all times by the spirit of liberty, whether it was in resisting encroachments by neighbors on his land, or by the British on his native soil. He was one of the picturesque heroes of the Revolution, and it is well that his native State should thus honor his memory.—Boston Transcript.

A temperance address will be given by Mrs. Callie Howe, St. Joseph, Mo., at the Methodist church, next Thursday evening, Aug. 17. Mrs. Howe will be remembered as the talented speaker who appeared before the State legislature three years ago, in advocacy of the then existing Prohibition Law. This is Mrs. Howe's third visit to this city, and the many admirers of this gifted speaker will greet her coming with pleasure. She comes under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and a generous collection will be hoped for to help defray the expenses of the work.
